Texas Bluebonnet Activity Choices

Choose 1 activity from the list below, complete it, and then turn map and activity in to the library. The Texas Bluebonnet map and activity are due Thursday, January 14th.

PicCollage

Download the free app PicCollage and create a short summary of one of the books

Include:

1. Title and author of the book
2. Your name and teacher
3. Main characters
4. Setting
5. Main problem/solution
6. Email to FE Librarian- katherinefcounterman@katyisd.org , bring your device and share with Mrs. Counterman, or print it out.

Sock Puppets App

Download the free app Sock Puppets and create a retelling of your favorite 2015-2016 Bluebonnet book. Scan the QR code for instructions.

Include:

1. Your name and teacher's name
2. The title, author of the book, and genre
3. Where is the setting, who are the characters?
4. What happened in the story from the beginning, middle, and end?
5. Use key words : first, next, then, last, finally
6. Save and bring your device to school to share with Mrs. Counterman.

---

30 hands Learning

Download the free app 30 Hands and create a slideshow about one of the Bluebonnet books. Be sure to look over 30 Hands tutorial video to understand how to create your presentation.

Include:

1. Your name and teacher's name
2. Book title and author
3. Main character list or pictures with character traits
4. A picture or description of the setting
5. A favorite part of the book and explanation of why it's your favorite
6. A quick summary of the book
7. Rate the book from 1-5 stars and tell why
8. Presentation should be 7 slides or more
9. Save and Email to FE Librarian – katherinefcounterman@katyisd.org or bring your device and share with Mrs. Counterman

---

Design a small poster

Persuade others to read your favorite 2015-2016 Bluebonnet book. Create a small poster that advertises the book.

Include:

1. Your name and teacher's name
2. Book title and author
3. Drawing of the main character or a scene from the story
4. Two or three sentences about why this was your favorite book and why everyone should read it.
5. Bring the poster activity to the library with your Bluebonnet map